II) Have you heard of Parvin Etesami? Here is a brief biography. Read and enjoy. Answer the questions after the passage to check your comprehension.

Parvin Etesami was born in 1907, in Tabriz. Her father was Mirza Yousef Etesami and she had three brothers. She left Tabriz to Tehran with her family in 1912 and lived in Tehran. She also made some short trips in Iran and foreign countries with her family.

She learned Arabic and Persian literature from her father. Her toys were books. She composed her first poem in classical style when she was eight years old. She knew most Iranian poets when she was eleven years old. She worked as a librarian at Tehran University. Her first collection of poems was published in 1935.

Her poems had social, humanity, learning concepts and no sign of love and feminism found in her works, as she lived in Iran's evolution period to modernism.

4 Parvin Etesami married in 1934 and divorced two months later. She died in 1940 in Tehran and was buried in Qom.
