Reading

L. Read the following passage and answer the questions. 4 points

Persian zebra is a large animal that looks like horse family. It is similar to a donkey but a little larger in size. It is an endangered animal. You can find it on the desert plain of Iran. It lives up to 40 years. Tooran National Park and the protected places of Bahram-e-Gur are two natural homes of Persian zebra.

Just a few of these zebras are alive now, about five hundred, because people are destroying their natural homes and making roads and farms. So, they move to new places but they can't find enough food there. In some places, cows and sheep destroy the plants on the plains and don't leave any food for the zebras, and then some of them die of hunger.

Wolves and leopards are the natural hunters of Persian zebra but most of them are hunted by humans, not by these wild animals!

1. Persian zebras live mostlyof Iran.
a. on the desert plains b. in the Northern parts
2. Only around..... of Persian zebras are left alive.
